FAMILY HISTORY RESEARCH AT THE ALABAMA DEPARTMENT OF ARCHIVES AND HISTORY WORKSHOP OCTOBER 13, 2010

Do you want to know how to trace your family history? Are you overwhelmed by all the information available on computers and are not sure where to start? Are you stuck and unable to find that missing piece of information? If so, the Alabama Department of Archives and History and the Friends of the Alabama Archives are here to help you. Join Nancy Dupree on Wednesday, October 13, from 9:00 to Noon for Family History Research at the Alabama Department of Archives and History. This seminar will help researchers of all levels of experience discover the great variety of records and resources that the ADAH has to offer. Dupree will also help researchers make the best use of online family history information from ADAH.

The $20 registration fee covers the cost of materials and refreshments. Members of the Friends of the Archives can register at a discounted rate of $15. To register go online to <http://www.archives.alabama.gov/workshop.pdf>. This workshop is sponsored by the Friends of the Archives, a non-profit support group of the Alabama Department of Archives and History.
