Hometown History: Engaging Students with Local History and Archival Research

Troy University Dothan Campus, Dothan

June 22-24, 2020

Bettina Shiver, Covington County Schools

Bring local history to life by delving into your community's defining documents. This workshop will demonstrate how to acquire archival materials in an engaging, interactive way! Through primary sources, students can get a glimpse into the past and connect directly with their local history. Join us to learn how to empower your students to be civic-minded citizens.
