

Alabama's Longleaf Pine

The longleaf pine is Alabama's state tree. The map below shows where the longleaf pine can be found across Alabama. Use the map and the word bank to answer the questions.

1. Longleaf pine forests do not only have trees; under the trees there is _____.

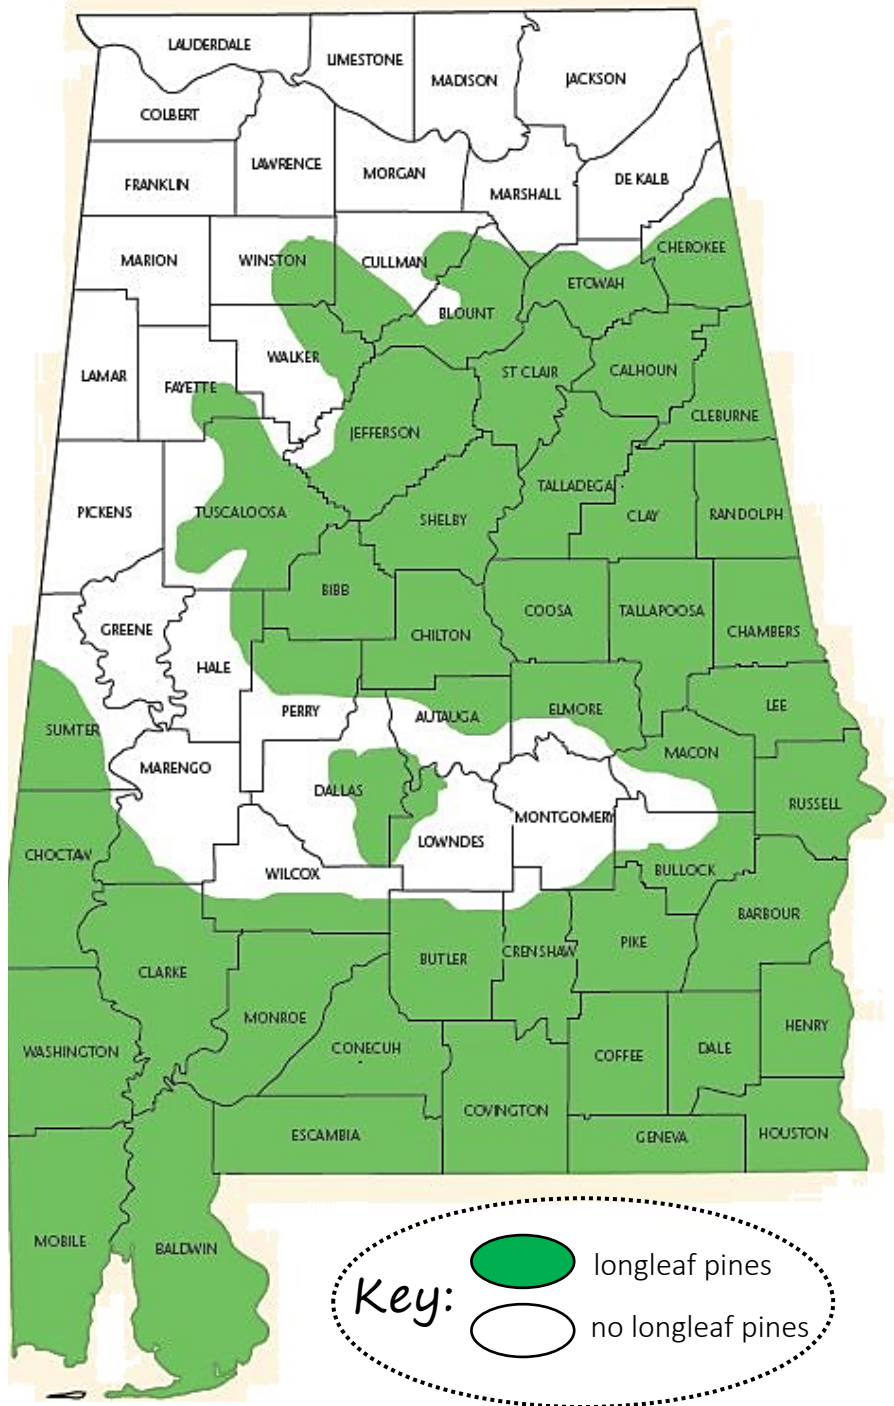

2. In what areas of Alabama does the longleaf not grow? In the Black _____, in part of the Cumberland Plateau, and in the Highland _____.

3. Longleaf Pines grow in warm and _____ environments.

Word Bank

Rim grass dry Belt

4. Complete the drawing and color the longleaf pine.

Key:  longleaf pines
 no longleaf pines

Answers!

Longleaf Pine

1. Longleaf pine forests do not only have trees; under the trees there is GRASS.
2. In what areas of Alabama does the longleaf not grow? In the Black BELT, in part of the Cumberland Plateau, and in the Highland RIM.
3. Longleaf Pines grow in warm and DRY environments.
4. Complete the drawing and color the longleaf pine.

