The ADAH building and the Museum of Alabama are open to the public. Regular operating hours will be Monday through Friday from 8:30 am to 4:30 pm. Saturday hours will resume later this year. All museum galleries and exhibitions with the exception of the Hands-On Gallery are open for self-guided tours. The EBSCO Research Room remains accessible by appointment only (see below).

Requirements for Visitors While Inside the ADAH:

- All visitors aged seven (7) and above are required to wear masks correctly at all times. ADAH staff are required to wear masks at all times while in public areas of the building.
- Visitors should maintain a distance of six feet from those not in their household.
- Group size is limited to no more than fifteen (15).
- Please make use of hand sanitizing stations in common areas of the ADAH. Sanitize or wash hands frequently.

Docent-Led Group Tours:

The ADAH is not accepting reservations for docent-led group tours at this time.

EBSCO Research Room

Access to the EBSCO Research Room is available by appointment only. Appointments are available Tuesdays through Fridays in three-hour blocks (morning, 8:30 to 11:30, and afternoon, 12:30 to 3:30). To schedule an appointment, complete the Research Reservation Request Form or call (334) 353-4648.

Staff are processing requests made online with our Research Request Form. Agency resources available for online research can be found at the Explore Our Collections section of our website.

Public Programs

The ADAH's public programs, including the monthly Food For Thought lecture series, remain virtual, livestreaming on Facebook and YouTube. Plans to return to in-person programs and events will be announced later in 2021. Visit www.archives.alabama.gov or the ADAH's social media channels (Facebook and Twitter) for more information about upcoming programs.

Alabama History@Home is a clearinghouse of links to free, online resources for exploring Alabama history while practicing social distancing. Resources include educational materials for children, virtual tours, streaming media, digitized collections, and research databases from institutions across the state.
