SERIES DESCRIPTION

SERIES I: ADMINISTRATIVE FILES

This series consists of correspondence pertaining to Alabama Governor George C. Wallace's gubernatorial administrations and campaigns, plus his presidential campaigns. It is organized by chronologically, then by topic. Similar information appears within each sub-series. The correspondence provides valuable insight into George C. Wallace's political ambitions, campaign strategies, and the political environment of many cities, states, and regions. The campaign material details the election laws of various political jurisdictions; preparations for speaking engagements; relationships between the Wallace campaigns and various political organizations; and documentation of support from large and small contributors. Personnel and state administrative information is also included throughout the administrative files.

A. 1951-1961

Box 1, Folders 1-2

This contains correspondence between George C. Wallace, James E. Howard and Mrs. Smith. Arranged alphabetically.

B. 1960-1969

Box 1, Folder 3 - Box 25

The presidential campaign of 1968 and the gubernatorial races of 1962 and 1968 are included here. Campaign schedules and detailed files on large electoral states such as California, Florida, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Michigan and Missouri are included.

Trial transcripts from United States of America vs Macon County Board of Education are of particular interest. The trial pertains to the issue of segregation. Also included in sub-series B are state proclamations from Governors George C. Wallace and Lurleen Wallace in regards to bombings in Birmingham and Mobile, Alabama.

This sub-series contains a detailed account of the George C. Wallace Southeast Asia Tour in 1969. Also available are Wallace's daily schedules and appointment books.

Primary correspondents include: George C. Wallace, James Estomo, James Taylor Harding, Marvin Griffin, Hubert Humphrey, Curtis LeMay and William Shearer. Arranged alphabetically.

C. 1969-1970

Boxes 26 - 34

This centers primarily on the 1970 Alabama Gubernatorial Primary. Items of interest include campaign correspondence, gubernatorial primary statistics, a large volume of Western Union telegrams to George C. Wallace and a daily appointment book for 1970.

There are several administrative files significant to the governorship of Alabama, covering the following topics: Alabama Ethics Commission, proposed legislation for 1971 and Dauphin Island. Primary correspondents include George C. Wallace and Taylor Hardin. Arranged alphabetically.

SERIES I: ADMINISTRATIVE FILES (cont.)*D. 1971-1979*Boxes 35 - 45

This contains Wallace campaign correspondence concerning the 1972 and 1976 presidential campaigns, gubernatorial campaign of 1974, and the U.S. Senate campaign of 1978. Also included are various visitor registers, daily appointment books and diaries.

Primary correspondents include George C. Wallace, Dwight Coffman, Elvin Stanton and Jack Wright. Arranged alphabetically.

E. 1980-1986*Boxes 46 - 84

George C. Wallace 1982 gubernatorial race highlights this period. Contributions, election returns and correspondence for the 1982 Alabama gubernatorial campaign are contained in this series. Primary correspondents include George C. Wallace, Arthur Eaves, Jack House and Forrest H. James. Arranged alphabetically.

SERIES II: BANKING FILES

Series II consists primarily of banking records of George C. Wallace's campaigns from 1960-1985. Banking documents include correspondence, and various checking and savings accounts in over ten different banks.

A. 1960-1969*Boxes 85 - 90

These records include bank account reconciliations, bank statements, canceled checks, voided checks, check registers, deposit records and wage and tax statements. Arranged alphabetically, thereunder chronologically.

B. 1970-1979*Boxes 91 - 101

These records include bank account reconciliations, canceled checks, check registers, daily deposit records, deposit records, Wallace medical accounts, Wallace Senate Campaign bank statements and materials relating to the Wallace Special Fund. Arranged alphabetically, thereunder chronologically.

C. 1980-1985*Boxes 102 - 104

These records include canceled checks, check registers, deposit records, Wallace campaign records from 1982 to 1985, Wallace campaign payroll information, Wallace campaign tax information and Wallace repurchase agreements. Arranged alphabetically, thereunder chronologically.

SERIES III: FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Series III consists primarily of invoices, bills, contributions and expense receipts of George C. Wallace's campaigns from 1960-1983. Particularly significant is the vast number of campaign contribution receipts that highlight small contributors and large corporations.

SERIES III: FINANCIAL STATEMENTS (cont.)*A. 1960-1969*Boxes 105 - 112

Financial expenses and contributions comprise this sub-series. There is a significant quantity of South Central Bell Telephone Company and Western Union receipts. Arranged alphabetically, thereunder chronologically.

B. 1970-1979*Boxes 113 - 126

The significance of these records is in the amount of personal expense receipts of George C. Wallace. Many of these receipts relate to everyday campaign expenditures and post-May 1972 medical expenses. These records also include insurance expenses, investments, organizational membership dues, 1970 payroll records and tax information including Wallace income from 1973-1976. Arranged alphabetically, thereunder chronologically.

C. 1980-1983*Boxes 127 - 143

This includes a vast collection of monthly expense receipts detailing the 1982 Alabama gubernatorial campaign. Significant to this sub-series is the enormous volume of Wallace campaign contribution deposit records. Arranged alphabetically, thereunder chronologically.
