

2023 Alabama History Institutes: Grades K-6

Birmingham's Place in Alabama's Rich History

Vulcan Park and Museum, Birmingham
June 14-16, 2023

Stacey Leatherman, Jefferson County Schools
John Dorsey, Bessemer City Schools

This institute will focus on Birmingham's pivotal role in the Civil Rights Movement. Participants will learn how to incorporate stories from the past into their classrooms today. They will visit several historic civil-rights-related sites, including the Birmingham Civil Rights Museum, and learn how to use primary source documents to incorporate history into all content areas in their curriculums. Participants will have the opportunity to collaborate with their colleagues, gain a new appreciation for Alabama's rich history, and grow both professionally and personally.

Participants will need to bring their own device, such as a laptop or Chromebook.
