

2023 Alabama History Institutes: Grades K-12

Diversity in Storytelling: The Untold History of Mobile

University of Mobile, Mobile

June 6-8, 2023

Melissa Motes, Mobile County Schools

Krystle Smith, Baldwin County Schools

From Native American history to the Civil Rights movement to the rediscovery of the Clotilda, the Port City is teeming with stories of a diverse and complex past. Through hands-on activities with primary sources, participants in this institute will explore lesser-known stories from Mobile's rich history. This institute will offer participants the opportunity to engage with archaeology and oral histories while learning new strategies to help their students connect with local and state history in meaningful ways.

Alabama DEPARTMENT OF
ARCHIVES & HISTORY