

2024 Alabama History Institutes: Grades K-4

Making it Happen: Supporting Literacy Education with Social Studies

Shelby County Instructional Center, Alabaster
June 12-14, 2024

Samantha Dutton, Jefferson County Schools
Danielle Hutcheson, Madison County Schools

Participants in this workshop will explore new approaches to keeping history relevant in the elementary classroom. Educators will take a closer look at how social studies instruction can be strengthened in a way that also serves Alabama's state literacy requirements. Presenters will offer a fresh look at strategies and share exciting ideas for inspiring fluent readers using historical concepts from the primary grades.

Participants will also engage in one-of-a-kind experiential learning opportunities that will inspire new ideas to take back and implement in the classroom.
